

CHAROULA MELLIU

Deputy Secretary-General, ESWET – The European Suppliers of Waste-to-Energy Technology

Charoula is Deputy Secretary-General at ESWET, the European association representing suppliers of Waste-to-Energy technology, which she joined in 2021.

She previously worked for FEAD, the European Waste Management Association, and as an attorney in Greece.

Charoula holds a Master of Laws in Environmental Law and Policy (UCLA, USA), a Master of Science in Sustainable Development from the International Hellenic University in Thessaloniki, and a Bachelor of Laws from Aristotle University in Thessaloniki.